

BLOG 40

Catching up on news as we are still happily painting together as a group every Friday morning, in our lovely venue with generous table room for the painters, & easy access/parking, plus wide views over Cotignac & beyond to the mountains- ideal atmosphere for peaceful creation.

The weather is beautiful although chilly- but the famous Provençal light certainly helps to inspire. Maybe we can even venture outside to paint en plein air un de ces jours....